WILL NEED
400,000
SOLDIERSEstimate of Army to Invade Mexico.WILSON REPLIES TO CARRANZA'S WARNINGRushes Brigade of Infantry and Some Artillery to the Border.

Washington, April 24.—President Wilson may go before congress within forty-eight hours to ask for a volunteer army. War department experts have estimated he will require 400,000 men. On this basis Minnesota would have to furnish about twelve thousand.

Washington, April 24.—With crushing force President Wilson replied to Carranza's warning to the United States to get out of Mexico.

A brigade of infantry and a heavy detachment of artillery were rushed to the border; another brigade of infantry and more artillery were ordered from Galveston to Vera Cruz and the embargo on arms to the Constitutionists clamped on.

Everything is in readiness to send the troops across the border. Although the administration still talks of halting its armed intervention "short of war," this action is a virtual declaration of war.

The answer of the mailed fist to the defiance of General Carranza came after important conferences. President Wilson had answered Carranza's ultimatum with a polite note of unmistakable warning. When no assurance of a change in Carranza's attitude came the council of President Wilson with Secretaries Bryan, Garrison and Daniels ordered the troops to the frontier and issued the first command which sent a detachment of the regular army to a foreign shore for hostile service.

Troops Going to Vera Cruz. No announcement was made of the exact troops to go to Vera Cruz. Secretary Garrison declaring he would leave that to General Funston, hero of the Philippines, now in command at Galveston. Major General Wood, who gave up his post as chief of staff of the army, may go with the detachment to Vera Cruz.

The regiments sent to the border are from the Presidio of San Francisco and the artillery from Fort Riley, Kan. They are to report to General Bliss. The announcement that they are to "allay apprehension along the border" is looked upon here as only the cover for heavy reinforcement of the border troops. Orders to send them across the Rio Grande are expected momentarily.

It is understood here that all the regulars on the border will be used first as attacking columns which are to move into Mexico from the north. Plans are ready for the mobilization of the militia in the shape of a call for 50,000 volunteers.

Much Depends on Carranza.

The volunteers, it is expected, will replace the border patrol of the regulars. Whether the attack in Mexico will be carried through any of the territory now held by the Constitutionists depends on the attitude of Carranza. Until he takes some aggressive action it is not expected that our troops will invade the states under his dominion.

One possible cause of speedy clash with Carranza may be the seizure of that part of the Colorado river which lies in Constitutional territory and from which American irrigation projects obtain water supplies by a special convention. Secretary Lane recommended the taking of this portion of the stream and that is likely to be done.

The war department order was given out by Garrison in the shape of a short statement that is expected to take its place in the records of this conflict as the real "declaration of war." It follows:

Means War in Earnest.

"The department has been in receipt of many telegrams from places all along the border showing apprehension and to relieve the tension I have ordered additional troops to report to General Bliss to be distributed to such places as he finds advisable under the circumstances. The regiments of infantry at the Presidio at San Francisco will report to General

ADMIRAL WINSLOW.

Commanda Special Service Squadron.

Bliss, together with some artillery from Fort Riley.

"On orders from the department no munitions of war will at present be permitted to go over the border. A brigade of infantry and some artillery will be dispatched from Galveston to Vera Cruz to co-operate with the navy there."

The navy added to the fleet on the east coast of Mexico the two biggest dreadnaughts of the navy, the New York and the Texas. They will head a "special service squadron" of sixteen ships of war under the command of Rear Admiral Winslow. His flagship will be the New York and his "flying squadron" will bear the brunt of the patrol work and the blockade of the east coast.

Isolates Entire Republic.

With a similar squadron on the west coast this isolates the entire republic of Mexico, except for the short frontier line between Mexico and Guatemala.

Fifty-four American ships of war, not counting two flotillas of torpedo boats, are now in the Mexican service. Forty-five hundred men make up the brigade of infantry, with its auxiliary, which is being loaded at Galveston. Its dispatch was precipitated by word from Admiral Badger of the seriousness of the situation in that city. Rear Admiral Badger flashed that he now has 5,400 men ashore, but the Mexicans are gathering for an attack. He feels that he can resist them successfully, but it is expected that reinforcement will continue and the administration is taking no chances.

President Wilson's depression convinced his visitors that at last he felt hope of peace had fled. President Wilson said that he has no present plan to lay before congress any of the dramatic changes that have taken place in the situation since Monday. Congress alone can declare war, but the mailed hand which is closing down upon the republic of Mexico will make that declaration merely the fulfillment of informality.

DECLARES HE WILL NOT FIGHT AMERICAGeneral Villa Says His Attitude
Is Friendly.

El Paso, Tex., April 24.—General Francisco Villa, head of the rebel military forces, informed George C. Carothers, special agent of the state department, that he will decline to be dragged into a war with the United States by anybody.

"Why," he smiled, as he threw an arm about the broad shoulders of the government representative, "all Europe would laugh at us if we went to war with you. They would say that 'little drunkard Huerta has drawn them into a tangle at last.'"

Villa said he was consulted in the drafting of the Carranza note transmitted to Secretary Bryan and which was regarded as somewhat hostile in tone.

The rebel leader told Carothers, who reported the interview to the state department, that one of the chief reasons why he came to Juarez was to show the American people that his attitude was friendly and that he did not fear to trust himself on the border without a military escort behind him.

West Calls for Cavalry Regiment to

Salem, Ore., April 24.—Governor Oswald West issued a call for the organization of a regiment of state cavalry. He said that if it was necessary to use the regiment in connection with the Mexican trouble he wished to accompany it.

Is Restored.

Washington, April 24.—Admiral Badger reported to the navy department that three more men had been killed and twenty-five wounded in the fighting at Vera Cruz.

The navy department issued the following statement:

"Wiring from Vera Cruz Admiral Fletcher reports that the desultory firing had been finally stopped by a house to house search and the disarmament of the inhabitants."

"After issuing his proclamation Admiral Fletcher had a long conference with the principal city officials, at which he carefully explained the attitude of the United States."

"He reports that the officials appeared willing to resume their official duties, but that they feared consequences for their acts from the Mexicans."

"Pending their resuming their official duties Rear Admiral Fletcher says he is appointing officers to supervise the administration of the city government."

Guerrilla Warfare Ends.

"Simultaneously with the effectual suppression of the guerrilla warfare which had been carried on a great change for the better is reported, Admiral Fletcher saying that at the time of his dispatch many people were appearing in the streets and that a number of stores, banks and business houses had resumed business."

"Fear is still expressed for the water works, as the supply is running low and an expeditionary force will leave for the water works to insure water supply. The defense line of trenches extends around the city and out to the sand hills."

"The admiral reports that the natives believe that the Mexicans will return to attack Vera Cruz."

Secretary Daniels issued this statement: "Admiral Badger wires that he landed the battalion from the Minnesota, Michigan and South Carolina and that the landing forces now ashore total about 5,400 men. The Minnesota, Chester, Prairie and San Francisco are lying in the inner harbor."

Three More Sailors Killed.

"Admiral Badger reports that as a result of desultory firing which continued about the city three more American sailors were killed and about thirty-five wounded."

"The landing party now occupies all the city and outposts stationed on the sand hills in the rear have been engaged in constructing defensive works."

"Very little food supply has been coming into the city and it is thought that in a few days the question of feeding the people of the city will become paramount and that it is possible the United States will be called upon to furnish food."

"The Mexican forces are disposed along the railroad line and, while Admiral Badger reports the rumor that they are preparing to attack, he adds that any attack can be successfully resisted."

Those killed in the fighting were D. J. Lane, seaman; E. H. Frohlichstein, ordinary seaman, and E. C. Fisher, ordinary seaman.

DOUGLAS ASKS FOR TROOPS

Arizona Town Requests Additional

Douglas, Ariz., April 24.—The Douglas chamber of commerce requested the secretary of war to send an additional regiment of soldiers here. The request is based on the preponderance of Mexicans here and in the mining camps.

Several American women from Nacozari, seventy miles south of here, in Mexico, arrived. A circular printed in Spanish and unsigned, was circulated, calling upon Mexicans to stand by the fatherland.

SEE MEXICAN PLOT
TO POISON WATERAttempt Was to Be Made on Supply of California Cities.

Sacramento, Cal., April 24.—What was said to be a Mexican plot to poison the water supply of San Diego was reported by the San Diego police to Adjutant General E. A. Forbes of the national guard.

General Forbes also received advice confirming a previous report of a plan to dynamite the Otay dam, about three miles north of the Mexican border line. The dam impounds water for the supply of the United States army and naval bases, the cities of San Diego, Coronado, National City and other small towns in Southern San Diego county.

The adjutant general's office took options on 1,000 head of horses and mules and arrangements were made for a shipment of typhoid fever vaccine to militia mobilization points.

REFUGEES BURDEN TO NAVY

Admiral Mayo Seeks Aid in Caring for Fugitives.

Washington, April 24.—This statement was issued:

"Admiral Mayo at Tampico requests help in caring for the refugees. All the ships at Tampico are full of refugees, 600 on Connecticut alone and about 200 more will be brought out by the British commander there will be refugees from Tuxpan to be taken care of. 'Admiral Badger will use the steamers Mexico at Vera Cruz to take off refugees expected from Mexico City, also the Hancock and Cyclops stopping at Tampico en route to Galveston loaded with refugees. With these vessels in use the refugees will be taken care of and transported to Galveston.'"

Brownsville, Tex., April 24.—General Zaragosa, federal commander at Tampico, has been given twenty-four hours to surrender by General Luis Caballero, commanding the Constitutional forces which have been besieging the city, according to a message given out by Constitutional headquarters at Matamoros.

of No Other Commands.

Washington, April 24.—War department plans for a campaign in Mexico at present do not contemplate the enlistment of any commands outside regular militia organizations in the states and territories. This became known when a delegation from Massachusetts called upon General Wether- spoon, chief of staff.

DEATH LIST IS

Colorado.

TO ESCAPE HAIL OF BULLETS

Twenty Miners, Their Wives and Children and a Number of Guards Are Compelled to Take Shelter in Pit in Order to Save Their Lives.

Trinidad, Colo., April 24.—The feeling of relief over the announcement in Trinidad that all the women and children entombed in the wrecked stope of the Empire mine had been taken out in safety was turned to gloom again by the receipt of information that the Southwestern mine had been razed and twenty more miners, their wives and children and a number of guards, have fled into the mine entrance to escape a hail of lead.

The known death list was increased to twenty-nine as a result of the fighting that started Monday and has been almost continuous since. Twenty-one lives were lost Monday in the Ludlow battle, four employees of the Victor-American Fuel company are known to have been killed at Delagua and the bodies of four strikers killed during the fighting in and about Aguilar are lying in the morgue at that place.

Strikers cleared away the wreckage at the mouth of the Empire mine, which was closed by explosions of dynamite, and, after a parley with the entombed prisoners, conducted three women, two children and Superintendent William Waddell, who was wounded, to a place of safety.

WOMEN NURSES VOLUNTEER

Red Cross Fairly Swamped With Applications.

Washington, April 24.—Applications for commissions in the army are pouring in upon the war department. Many of these are from former soldiers—men who have resigned their commissions in the regular service or who were officers in the volunteers during the last war with Spain.

The American Red Cross is having its share of volunteers and the headquarters at the war department were fairly swamped with letters from women volunteering for hospital and nursing service under the Red Cross in Mexico.

DAVIS AGAIN ENTERS
RACE FOR CONGRESS.

St. Paul, April 24.—Congressman Charles R. Davis of St. Peter filed as a Republican candidate for renomination in the Third district. His district is the same as two years ago except for the addition of Washington county. Mr. Davis has represented the district twelve years.

Recruiting Offices at Chicago Deluged
With Applications.

Chicago, April 24.—Nearly 800 recruits for the regular army were sent from here in several squads bound for St. Louis, where they will receive instructions at Jefferson barracks. There were several hundred applications at naval recruiting stations.

Recruiting, which has been active since the first muttering of Mexican hostilities, is growing daily, many of the applicants being men who have served one or more enlistments or saw service in the Spanish war.

Arrive at Vera Cruz After Thrilling Escape

Vera Cruz, April 24, 2:00 P. M.—After a thrilling trip from Mexico City during which they were repeatedly held up by Federal troops, hissed and insulted, four hundred American, British and German refugees arrived here today. During the past three days serious anti-American demonstrations have occurred in Mexico City. The American consulate was attacked and stoned and the coat of arms taken from the door. American shops have been looted and Americans have appeared on street at their peril. They were stoned and insulted.

HAS NO FIGHTING VALUE

Mexican Navy Consists of Only
Eleven Vessels.

Washington, April 24.—The formidableness of the American fleet of naval vessels, now in Mexican waters, compared with those of Mexico is strikingly brought out in statistics made public by the navy department.

There are at present twenty-five United States ships of the United States navy scattered along the Mexican coasts, a majority of which are of the latest fighting type. Opposed to these are eleven Mexican naval vessels, four of which are characterized as of "no fighting value."

Eighteen of the American naval vessels are on the Atlantic coast and seven on the Pacific.

WOMEN OPPOSE OCCUPATION

Chicagoans Favor Withdrawal of Marines From Vera Cruz.

Chicago, April 24.—Prominent Chicago women, among them Miss Jane Addams, expressed themselves in favor of withdrawing the American troops from Vera Cruz as a means of averting bloodshed.

"War with Mexico can be averted if the will to do so is strong enough," said Miss Addams. "War with Great Britain has been averted for a hundred years, although difficult crisis have come up. Withdraw our troops from Vera Cruz by all means, if by so doing we can avert wholesale bloodshed and carnage."

"ON TO MEXICO"
THE NEXT ORDERS

Washington, April 24, 2:55 P. M.—The United States is making military preparations for the march on Mexico City. Such an expeditionary force as is necessary to begin this war movement will be assembled at Vera Cruz in four days. It is believed in Washington that by that time all causes for the present hesitation on the part of the administration will have been swept away.

TEXAS GUARD AT THE BORDER

Austin, Texas, April 24, 2:55 P. M.—An entire regiment of the Texas National Guard was today ordered to mobilize at Brownsville for border patrol duty. Governor Colquitt, it also became known, will order the other two regiments to the border.

BORDER PATROL
IS EVER VIGILANT

Washington, April 24, 10:10 A. M.—Today may see fighting over the northern border of Mexico between bands of Federals who have united with scattered rebel troops and threaten to attack the smaller border patrol. Their vigilance never relaxed.

Great uneasiness was prevailing at El Paso and other cities on the Mexican line.

Juarez was reported quiet, but there was a strong undercurrent of feeling against the United States. Rebel troops continue to arrive in the city in large numbers.

TROOPS RUSHED

Washington, D. C., April 24, 8:30 A. M.—A brigade of infantry and a heavy detachment of artillery have been rushed to the Texas border and another brigade of infantry and more artillery have been ordered from Galveston to Vera Cruz. "The Last Supper"

Christ is shown as the hidden power that influences mankind to turn from iniquity to righteousness. The carnal mind, prompted by selfish and negative desires, experiences the operation of an inner consciousness, which thwarts evil passions and promotes good and noble aspirations. The kicked man is turned from his life of dissipation to one of honest effort. The sloven are awakened to a realization of their utter hopelessness. Everywhere the presence of a divine power is perceptible. The evil in a drunkard's home is banished by the thought of Christ, who appears as the man of Nazareth. The temper at the threshold of the idle rich is thwarted and the Christ man, by his presence, drives home conviction of guilt as the woman scorns her lover to remain true to the absent husband. Innocence is not permitted to be victimized by the lust of the flesh as the quiet little voice of conscience, aroused by the proximity of the man of sorrows, averts a tragedy.

The "Thirteen Club," a social organization devoting its energies to the promulgation of higher ideals, is unwittingly the guest of a stranger, who turns out to be Christ. As they gather at the banquet table to discuss their experiences they dissolve into Christ and the Apostles at the Last Supper, after a renowned painting by the celebrated Leonardo di Vinci. The picture concludes with the gathering at the Sea of Galilee, where Christ is seen walking on the water.

TEACHERS LEAGUE MEETS

Session Held With Miss Barrett of the Whittier School—Meetings Grow in Interest

The regular monthly meeting of the Teachers League was held last night with Miss Barrett at the Whittier school. These meetings grow in interest and indicate real progress along educational lines with an increasing interest in school affairs that will certainly have its lasting effect for good on the schools of the city.

The usual business was transacted, new members received and by a unanimous vote the league goes into the national organization. The Brainerd league is entitled to two delegates to the annual meeting of the national society which is to be held in St. Paul in July, and it is hoped by local officers that something may be added to what Brainerd already stands for in school lines.

At the close of the business meeting a social hour with exchange of ideas on current topics was much enjoyed by the large number of teachers present.

Miss Barrett said: "Why cannot our buildings be used as gathering places for parents occasionally? The teachers would certainly be glad to have the opportunity to know the parents better."

"MICHAEL'S"

DISCUSSES "THE CRUCIFIXION"

Tabernacle Comfortably Filled Thursday Night to Hear Evangelist Lowry

22 TAKE THE SAWDUST TRAIL

Tonight is Special, Being Railroad Men's Night—Unique Hall Decorations

The big tabernacle was comfortably filled last night to hear the evangelist on the theme the "Crucifixion." In graphic outline he presented the scene of the cross. When his appeal was made at the close sixty-two persons took the sawdust trail forward.

There was special music. A male quartet composed of Revs. Satterlee, Hostager, Zabel and Mr. Moody sang an arrangement of "Nearer My God to Thee." It was well sung and the audience warmly applauded. The chorus was greatly enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Moody sang "He Was Nailed to the Cross," as an introduction to the sermon. The first class for Bible study met this afternoon. Mr. Lowry made an interpretation of the book of Galatians.

Tonight is special. It is railroad men's night. All employees of the Northern Pacific are particularly invited. The big building will be decorated and switch lights will be swung over the evangelist's platform. Mr. Martin, assistant evangelist, is working hard to make this an attractive occasion for the railroad men.

The men are asked to meet at the Y. M. C. A. at 7:30 o'clock and march in a body to the tabernacle. Seats will there be reserved. Theme, "Man's Excuses."

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a meeting for Sunday school scholars and teachers. Rev. Lowry will address this gathering. Every teacher is urged to see that his class is present.

Mr. Lowry took for his text last evening Luke 23:33: "And when they were come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified Him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the left."

He said: "Jesus Christ has always been the sinner's friend. If He were not neither you or I would have a chance for salvation. He was lifted up between two thieves, one on either side, and Jesus in the midst."

The world has never been the same since. On one side was the penitent malefactor on the other was the impenitent. Today the cross of Christ separates the penitent and the impenitent. It often stands between husband and wife, often between parents and children, between brother and brother.

Three men hung on the bitter cross. One was dying in sin, one for sin, and one was dying to sin.

Let us stop before the cross of the impenitent thief. In the midst of the pain of death he mocks. Strange! yes, but no more strange than what people are doing today. He heard the same words that bore conviction to the penitent thief. He saw the same things.

The gospel is doing two things wherever it is preached. It is bringing some to repentance and some it
